

Victim Advocate and Available Services

The following information provides general information on your rights as a crime victim and services available to assist you through the aftermath of the crime. A victim advocate is available to help you know and understand your rights, connect you to available services such as counseling, and assist you in applying for financial assistance with medical bills and other expenses. Because your case may involve interaction with many state and local agencies, an advocate will provide you with support and guidance as well as help you understand the legal system and what happens next in the process.

Victims Compensation Assistance Program

You may be eligible to receive financial help with expenses directly related to the crime (e.g., medical and counseling expenses, loss of earnings, loss of support, stolen cash, relocation, funeral or crime scene clean-up). A compensation form is attached.

Offender Release Notification

You can register to receive free, automatic, confidential notifications regarding your offender while he/she is under the supervision of county jails, state prisons, or state parole. To learn more and to register, call 1-866-9PA-SAVIN (1-866-972-7284).

Court Notifications

If the crime in which you were a victim is being prosecuted by the district attorney's office and you would like to be notified as the case moves through the system, please inform your advocate.

Address Confidentiality Program

You may be eligible for enrollment in the Address Confidentiality Program (ACP) if you are a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. For more information about ACP, contact your local victim service program or call the ACP at 1-800-563-6399.

Your Rights as a Crime Victim

- You have the right to receive information about basic services, including your eligibility to receive financial assistance.
- You have the right to provide input into the sentencing and post-sentencing decisions as well as on the offender's release, parole, community treatment, work release, etc.
- If the abuser named in the Protection From Abuse (PFA) order is jailed for either a violation of the order or for a personal injury crime against a victim protected by the order, then you have the right to receive immediate notice of his or her release on bail.
- You have the right to know the details of the final outcome of your case.
- You have the right to be accompanied to all criminal court proceedings by a family member, a victim advocate, or a support person.
- You have the right to be informed about the offender's status, including bail, escape, release, and arrest.
- You have the right to receive help in preparing an oral and/or written victim impact statement.

For more information on your rights please visit www.pacrimevictims.com or call any of the local victim service providers provided with this information.

Rights of Domestic Violence Victims

If you are the victim of domestic violence, you have the right to go to court and file a petition requesting an order for protection from domestic abuse pursuant to the Protection From Abuse Act (23 Pa.C.S. Ch. 61) which could include the following:

- An order restraining the abuser from further acts of abuse.
- An order directing the abuser to leave your house.
- An order preventing the abuser from entering your residence, school, business, or place of employment.
- An order awarding you or the other parent temporary custody of or temporary visitation with your child or children.
- An order directing the abuser to pay support to you and the minor children if the abuser has a legal obligation to do so.

Your Local Service Agencies and How They Can Help You

Victim/Witness Assistance

For victims of crimes committed by an adult offender (age 18 and over), this office can provide you with information on your rights and how they can help you.

Juvenile Court Victim/Witness Assistance

This agency can provide you information on victims' rights and services when the offender is under age 18 in the juvenile justice system and community.

Domestic Violence

In addition to counseling, legal and medical advocacy, emergency shelter, and safety planning, this organization can help you file a Protection from Abuse (PFA) order. A PFA is a court order issued by a judge that can help provide protection to you and your children from an abusive person. Because filing a PFA can be different in each county, it is important for you to contact your local organization cited here. A hotline service is also available 24/7.

Sexual Assault

Services are available to all victims of sexual violence, including female and male victims who are adults, teens, or children. Crisis and support counseling is available for sexual assault victims, family members, and others close to the victim. Counseling is available both in person and on the telephone. An advocate will provide accompaniment to the hospital, police, and court proceedings and assist in navigating the medical and criminal justice systems. Hotline and accompaniment services are available 24-hours a day.

MADD-DUI

This agency can provide you counseling, support, information, and referral services for victims of DUI crashes and their families.

Child Abuse

This agency can provide you counseling, information, and referral services for abused and neglected children and their families.

Elder Abuse

This agency can provide you counseling, shelter, and protective services for older victims and their families.

Victims Compensation Assistance Program Short Form

Please read the following before completing this form.

You may be eligible for compensation if:

- The crime occurred in Pennsylvania.
- The crime was reported to the proper authorities within 3 days OR a Protection From Abuse order was filed within 3 days of the crime.
- You cooperate with law enforcement authorities investigating the crime, the courts, and the Victims Compensation Assistance Program in processing the claim.
- The claim is filed within 2 years after the discovery of the crime (there are exceptions when the victim is a child).
- You have paid or owe at least $100 of any combination of the expenses listed below. If you are age 60 or over, there is no minimum loss requirement.

You may be awarded compensation for:

- Medical Expenses
- Counseling Expenses
- Loss of Earnings
- Loss of Support
- Relocation Expenses
- Funeral Expenses
- Crime-Scene Cleanup
- Transportation Expenses
- Childcare
- Home Healthcare Expenses
- Stolen Cash (If your main source of income is Social Security Retirement, Disability Income, Supplemental Income, Survivor Benefits, Retirement/Pension(s), Disability or Court-Ordered Child/Spousal Support.)

An overall maximum award shall not exceed $35,000; however, certain benefits, such as counseling and crime-scene cleanup, may be paid over and above the maximum. Monetary limits apply to most benefits.

The Program does not cover:

- Pain and suffering.
- Stolen or damaged property (except replacement of stolen or damaged medical equipment).

A claim may be determined ineligible or an award may be reduced if the conduct of the victim contributed to the injury.

Victims Compensation Assistance Program Short Form

Your cooperation with the Program and the submission of complete and accurate information will assist us in processing your claim in a timely manner.

IMPORTANT NOTE: You do not have to wait until the trial is over or all of your bills are received to file a claim. You may file a claim if there is no known offender or if an arrest has not been made.

General instructions for submitting your claim:

- Please print clearly.
- Complete only those sections that apply to your claim.
- Provide an accurate address and a safe phone number where you can be reached during the day.
- Provide as many of the requested documents as you can when filing your claim. You may submit your claim even if you do not have all the required documents. The Program may request additional information once the claim is received.
- Sign the Acknowledgement and Reimbursement Agreement and the Authorization to Obtain Information sections on the back of the claim form.
- If you would like assistance in filing your claim you may contact the Victim Service Program listed on the back of this form. If no agency is listed, you may contact the Victims Compensation Assistance Program at (800) 233-2339 for assistance.

Please Note: It is important that you inform the Program if you change your address or phone number. To process your claim, we must be able to contact you.

The Victims Compensation Assistance Program is the payer of last resort. This means your award will be reduced by the monies you receive from any other source as a result of the crime, such as insurance, restitution, and civil suit settlements, including monies received for pain and suffering.

We will make every effort to process your claim as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Acknowledgement and Reimbursement Agreement

The Acknowledgement and Reimbursement Agreement must be signed before the claim verification process will begin.

My signature below signifies I understand each of the following statements or points of law:

The decision to approve my claim is that of the Program's. I may object to all or part of the Program's decision in writing within 30 days from the date of the decision. I must prove the exact amount of my losses before the Program will consider awarding compensation from the Crime Victims Compensation Fund. I may file for reimbursement for additional expenses incurred relating to the crime. My claim may be denied if I do not cooperate fully with law enforcement agencies, the courts, and the Program or maintain a valid address with the Program. If I were to make a false claim, it would be a criminal offense punishable as a misdemeanor under Section 11.1303 of the Crime Victims Act. If I were to make a false statement in this claim form with the intent to mislead the Program, it would be a criminal offense punishable as a misdemeanor under 18 Pa. C.S. 4904.

I understand that the Crime Victims Compensation Fund is the payer of last resort. I specifically agree to inform the Program of and repay to the Commonwealth any funds that I may receive from any other source that has not already been considered, as a result of the crime and to the extent of the award. That is, I agree to repay any funds that I receive from the offender, any other person or source, which compensates me for the injury I suffered, including any award for pain and suffering. I further agree that if the claim is at any time determined to be in error, false or fraudulent, I will refund to the Program all sums of money paid by the Program.
