No Show Policy

A person who registers for basic, continuing education, optional, or any firearms training and does not attend all or part of the training, without providing proper notice of withdrawal to the training delivery contractor, will receive a failing grade of zero for any and all modules missed and will have to repeat that training. A notification shall be deemed timely if it is delivered to the director of the school or his or her designee no later than seven calendar days prior to the class start date. The school may assess a failing grade for all or part of the training course, if the constable fails to provide timely notification or to show good cause. The school director or his or her designee may use discretion regarding emergencies and extenuating circumstances when deciding whether to sanction non-attendance by submitting zero grades.

A constable or deputy constable who is deemed a "No Show" for basic, continuing education, optional, or any firearms training shall bear the financial responsibility for the additional training course in the same training year or in the next training year. This policy became effective with the publication of the Board's Regulation changes on March 8, 2014.

If you have an emergency prior to the class start date, please contact the appropriate Training Delivery Contact listed above. Please do not contact PCCD Staff to enroll, withdraw or transfer training classes.

PA Constables' Classroom Code of Conduct

All newly elected or appointed constables and deputy constables must sign off on the PA Constables' Classroom Code of Conduct prior to enrolling into any constable training classes for training year 2015. If you have attended constable training classes anytime from 2010 through 2014, you have already signed off on this document and do not need to submit the acknowledgement again.

2015 Constables' Training 80-hour BASIC TRAINING

All newly elected constables or appointed deputy constables are required, under Act 49-2009 §7142(a) to attend and successfully complete basic training in order to perform judicial duties and be paid. Constables and appointed deputy constables must be registered with PCCD. For more information, please visit PCCD's website at www.pccd.pa.gov or telephone PCCD, at (717) 265-8551, (717) 265- 8552 or (717) 265-8554.

Refer to Title 37 Law, Chapter 431, for regulations relating to the certification of constables and deputy constables. In order to successfully complete basic training, an individual must attend and participate in all training as scheduled, achieve a passing score of at least 70% on each written examination administered during the course, and successfully demonstrate practical skills during each proficiency examination. Constables and deputy constables are tested in each of the subjects. An individual who receives less than 70% on any written exam will have only one opportunity to re-test in that subject. If an individual fails the re-test, that individual has failed the basic training course and will not be certified by the Board.

Basic Training will consist of instruction in the following subjects: Role of the Constable in the Justice System, Professional Development, Civil Law and Process, Criminal Law and Process, Use of Force, Mechanics of Arrest, Defensive Tactics, Prisoner Transport and Custody, Court Security, Crisis Intervention, Management of Aggressive Behavior (MOAB), Expandable Baton, and Oleoresin Capsicum (OC).

2015 Constables' Training 20-hour CONTINUING EDUCATION

Constables and deputy constables must successfully complete the 20-hour Continuing Education course in order to renew their certifications for 2016. Based upon successful completion of continuing education by October 2015, constables and deputy constables will be issued certification cards in December 2015, which will indicate certification for 2016.

Criminal Law Review: Defendant Contact Procedures (4 Hours) – This course is delivered in two phases: lecture with class discussion and practical demonstration/practice. The course is designed to assist the constable in understanding the concept of personal safety in executing arrest warrants and the risks associated with safety searches (protective sweeps) of residences and vehicles prior to making an arrest during a warrant service. In the practical demonstration, the constable will exhibit how to safely perform three searching techniques. Emphasis is placed on personal safety and on the legal issues regarding the constable's limited authority to carry out a search for safety purposes. This course includes a written examination.

Lessons Learned: It's Only a Landlord-Tenant Dispute (4 Hours) – This four-hour module is designed to provide essential knowledge as to what a constable can anticipate in a worst-case scenario involving a landlord/tenant dispute and how constables can prepare for and overcome the challenges of such a situation. The module uses video recreations of actual landlord/tenant disputes that have gone awry, along with lectures and discussions, to accomplish its goals. This course includes a written examination.

Civil Law and Process - Use and Abuse of Power (4 Hours) – Abuse of Power has been defined as the improper use of authority by someone who has that authority because he/she holds a public office, a form of “malfeasance in office”. Abuse of power also takes the form of “official misconduct”, which is the commission of an unlawful act, done in an official capacity, which affects the performance of official duties. This course will help to define and clarify the constable’s position of both real and perceived authority in Pennsylvania, taking into account the ‘grey areas’ which often lead to problems. This course includes a written examination.

Defensive Tactics: Core Competencies (8 Hours) – This is an eight-hour block of instruction that reviews and provides practice in basic constable defensive tactic techniques including: patterns of movement and footwork; handgun retention techniques; armbar takedowns and outside wrist turn takedowns; handcuffing tactics, techniques and procedures; strikes, kicks, and blocks; methods of transitioning between force options; emergency knife defense; and ground defense escape techniques. This course includes a written examination.

2015 Constables’ Training 8-hour OPTIONAL TRAINING

(Participants must complete all 8-hours of instruction. Participants will not be permitted to pick and choose which segment to complete).

OCAT Oleoresin Capsicum (OC) Course (4 hours) – This program has been designed to “train and certify” Pennsylvania’s constables in the safe, correct, and legal use of Oleoresin Capsicum (also known as OC or pepper spray). This course will instruct constables on how to use OC in a safe and reliable manner on standards that are accepted nationwide. Upon successful completion of both the practical and written examinations, constables will receive certification that is valid for three (3) years after issue.

- AND -

Monadnock Expandable Baton (4 hours) - In this four hour certification course constables will be introduced to basic baton techniques including; stance, patterns of movement, grip, methods of carry, draws, two-handed grip blocks, counter strikes, and retention. Constables will receive certification that is valid for three (3) years after issue.

2015 Constables' Training 40-hour BASIC FIREARMS

The Basic Firearms course has been designed to provide essential grounding in acceptable law enforcement techniques for any constable who is not certified to carry a firearm by the PCCD. It consists of 40 hours of basic firearms training and qualification. While the training is not mandatory, it is available to any constable who has completed the 80-hour Basic Training Course, has acquired a certification number, and is at least twenty-one years of age.

The 40-hour Basic Firearms course consists of a series of lectures, laboratory activities, and practical exercises that provide a basic understanding of the safe manipulation of a revolver or semi-automatic pistol. It starts with the presumption that the participant has little or no formal training. The course stresses safe handling techniques, proper cleaning, correct weapons handling skills, and marksmanship.

The constable will be exposed to firing in reduced light and to interactive judgmental shooting scenarios. Successful course completion will require passing all practical exercises and written tests, and demonstrating proficient, safe weapons handling skills. The Constable Qualification Course (CQC) is divided into two stages. A shooter must qualify on each phase with a score of at least a 75%. The shooter who fails to pass one of the phases will be permitted to repeat the phase on which he or she did not meet the 75% threshold.

Prior to registering to attend the 40-Hour Basic Firearms training, all constables and deputy constables must have completed and submitted the PCCD Background Check Form (PCCD Form 214). After the form is submitted, PCCD staff will complete a Background Check to determine eligibility to register to attend the Basic Firearms training.

2015 Constables' Training 20-hour ANNUAL FIREARMS

The Annual Firearms course for 2015 consists of 20 hours of instruction focused on the improvement of basic marksmanship skills. Along with a qualification course, it includes reduced-light and judgmental training, as well as modules designed to improve marksmanship and weapons handling skills.

Daily Range Evaluations and Assessments will evaluate each student's skills and will provide information to enhance future firearms training programs for constables. Satisfactory course completion requires a passing score (75%) on the written examination. In addition, the constable must achieve a qualification standard of 75% (45 points) or better on each phase of the Constable Qualification Course (CQC) using their duty weapon (weapon 1).

2015 Constables' Training 20-hour ADVANCED FIREARMS

The topic for the 2015 Advanced Firearms Training course will address what is often referred to as the “Survival Quotient,” or more accurately, the balance of speed and accuracy. One of the issues a constable must face is what level of their skill set is necessary to survive a lethal force encounter. A constable in a deadly force encounter must balance the speed at which he/she fires with the accuracy of the shots. This module offers constables a way to assess their skill set and evaluate their level of proficiency in the skill sets that have been taught in the basic, annual, and advanced courses. Constables will be presented with five drills that will provide them with an assessment tool that they can use to evaluate their level of expertise. There is no “passing score” for the drills; however a constable will be advised as to typical results. The drills involve a variety of skills that a constable might need to employ to survive a lethal force encounter. The course is designed as a series of separate modules that allow the site provider to reconfigure the sequence to deal with environmental or physical facility issues.

In order to qualify to attend the 2015 Advanced 20-hour Constable Firearm Training course, constables must have successfully completed the 2014 Annual, Basic or Advanced Firearms training course with a Constable Qualification Course (CQC) score of 88% or higher.

The Advanced 20-Hour Constable Firearms Training course consists of a series of assessments, laboratory, and practical exercises that insure that the constable meets the PCCD firearms certification requirements. This includes the Reduced Light, Judgmental, and Qualification courses. A 9-hour Survival Quotient module will focus on improving the shooter’s ability to draw and neutralize single and multiple adversaries. Satisfactory course completion requires a passing score (75%) on the written examination. In addition, the constable must achieve a qualification standard of 75% (45 points) or better on each phase of the Constable Qualification Course (CQC) using their duty weapon (weapon 1). In the Advanced Firearms Module, the CQC is conducted once weapons are inspected, functioned checked, and the reduced light portion of the training is completed. Unlike the Basic and Annual modules, there is no practice attempt on the CQC. A constable failing to qualify is not permitted to continue in the advanced class and may reschedule to attend an annual course at no cost to the constable.

Training Qualification with an Additional Weapon

Qualification with two weapons is permitted, subject to time constraints and range conditions. The constable must provide sufficient ammunition for that additional weapon. Constables must qualify with Weapon 1 before they will be permitted to attempt to qualify with Weapon 2.

In the event that a constable fails to achieve the required score during a Weapon 1 qualification attempt and re-shoots the portion of the course failed but still fails to qualify, that constable will not be permitted to attempt qualification with Weapon 2.

2015 Constables' Firearms Training

The Constable Education and Training Board ("Board") adopted several changes to the Constables Firearms Qualification Course in 2010. The dual phase qualification was retained, but now uses the more simplified NRA TQ-19 center mass target. The course of fire reinforces the training received and duplicates "real world" scenarios while still insuring range safety. The course of fire includes the use of barricades, the requirement to move to cover, and the use of verbal challenges in each stage. There have been no changes made to the Qualification Course for 2015.

Highlights of the Qualification Course

NRA TQ-19 Center Mass Target

- The course requires that a shooter score at least a 75% in each phase. The constable must qualify on both phases with a minimum raw score of at least 45 out of 60 points for each phase, for a total possible score of 120.
- Barricade Positions at the 15 and 25 Yard Stage.
- Barricade stages involve shooter moving to cover, approximately 1-2 yards.
- Shooters practice verbals once per stage.
- Maximum score moves from 300 (5 X 60) to 120 (2 X 60)

Participation in firearms training is limited to constables who are current with their training, insurance, and certification. Only constables and deputy constables who are currently in office, and who have achieved certification through basic training or the waiver examination, will be allowed to attend any firearms training course. Current, valid certification is required before any constable or deputy constable can be enrolled or admitted to any firearms class. See Title 37 Law, Chapter 431, for regulations relating to the certification of constables and deputy constables.

Once certified to carry a firearm while performing the duties of a constable under §7148 of Act 49-2009, a constable or deputy constable must annually attend and successfully complete firearms training in order to remain certified to carry a firearm. An annual background check of each individual's criminal history record is also conducted. Constables and deputy constables who desire firearms certification under §7148 of Act 49 must initially attend and successfully complete the 40-Hour Basic Firearms Training.

Constables who have previously been certified to carry a firearm under Act 49 should schedule themselves to attend Annual Firearms or Advanced Firearms Training. Firearms classes are distinguished by the following letters in the class ID number. "BF" stands for Basic Firearms, "AF" for Annual Firearms, and "SF" for Advanced Firearms.

Necessary equipment for the constable participating in Firearms Training:

- 1.) Appropriate service handgun of one of the following calibers: 380, 38 Special, 357, 40, 45, 9mm. Refer to Title 37 Law, § 431.43 for regulations relating to firearms qualification.
- 2.) Appropriate reloading device (at least two speed loaders or two magazines)
- 3.) Minimum of 60 rounds of service-type, factory ammunition for qualification (50 rounds for five-shot revolvers). Constables are encouraged to bring enough extra ammunition for second attempts to qualify, if necessary. Reloads are not permitted.
- 4.) Duty belt, appropriate/functional holster, and flashlight suitable for reduced-light exercises
- 5.) Eye and ear protection, baseball cap, and clothing suitable for inclement weather

Low Quantities of Ammunition

There is currently a shortage and/or low quantities of ammunition for handguns. We would encourage constables to purchase their duty ammunition for firearms training several months in advance of the basic, annual or advanced firearms courses. Constables should have at least 120 rounds of duty ammunition available for training; 60 rounds to qualify and if needed, 60 additional rounds to re-qualify if failure on first attempt. Constables will not be permitted to qualify if they do not have enough duty ammunition available at the time of the qualification course. PCCD will not provide the qualification ammunition.

Please note: The training delivery contractor may reconfigure the sequence of individual classes to deal with environmental or physical facility issues. When scheduling your firearms training class, please keep in mind that range and weather conditions vary throughout Pennsylvania.

ON-LINE CLASS ENROLLMENT

Constables' Certification, Education and Training System (CCETS)

The PCCD has made access to the Constables' Certification, Education and Training System (CCETS) available from the PCCD website. The system security standards have been reviewed by PCCD information technology personnel and other sources. A constable's personal information can be accessed only after the constable has properly identified himself during the process of signing-in to the CCETS system.

Constables can enroll for training via the Internet:

A constable can search the training schedule by region and type of training, select a class, and enroll in it online. When a class is full, the system closes that class and only accepts enrollments from the waiting list. A constable is also able to cancel his or her enrollment for one class and enroll in a different class simultaneously. The system will not allow a constable to enroll in more than one class of a particular type at any given time. The system builds class rosters and automatically moves the first person from the waiting list to the class roster when another constable cancels his or her enrollment. It also tracks who has cancelled out of a class.

NAVIGATING THE PCCD WEBSITE

1. Go to: www.pccd.pa.gov
2. When the PCCD Home Page opens, click on the "TRAINING" link on the right side of the page.
3. You will see "Constables' Education and Training Board" in the left column of the page. At the bottom of the paragraph is a link "More...", this will take you to the full Constables Education and Training Board webpage.
4. Then, select the link for "Register/Login to CCETS" on the right side of the page.
5. Once logged into CCETS, you can access your personal information and enroll in a class.

Training Enrollment Form (to enroll by mail or fax)

Class enrollment with the appropriate regional training delivery contractor is required prior to attending any class. Training is on a first-come, first-served basis. Class space is limited due to the availability of training facilities, and to provide a proper training environment. Class enrollments cannot be accepted over the telephone.

To enroll by mail or fax, complete an Enrollment Form and mail or fax it directly to the appropriate regional training delivery contractor. Do not send enrollment forms to PCCD.

All training enrollment questions should be referred to the appropriate regional training delivery contractor. Constables cannot enroll in classes by calling or mailing PCCD.

Highlights of the PCCD Website for the Constable User

Please Note: All of the following features are only accessible to constables who are registered in CCETS.

Navigation through CCETS is mainly by using the various categories and triangles on the left side. By clicking a triangle, it will expand and provide more links under that category. Also by clicking on the “Help” link on the screen, a word document will open and provide further information about that screen.

A user can also navigate by using the tabs on the upper right, shown below:

By clicking on the “Constable” a user will see all their basic information. On the upper right side of the screen is a quick snapshot of a constable or deputy’s status regarding certification.

The information on this dashboard will be updated as a constable renews insurance, completes training or has term dates updated by the Clerk of Courts. The Clerk of Courts will have direct access to CCETS to update the constables’ liability insurance and term dates.

By clicking on the “Training” tab, a constable will be able to enroll in a class. The constable will also be able to view his/her training history.
