2014 TRAIN THE TRAINER PROGRAM

The Deputy Sheriffs' Education and Training Board (DSETB) is pleased to announce the 2014 training schedule for the Train the Trainer Program. This voluntary program is designed to develop in-house trainers that will be certified by the (DSETB) to train Pennsylvania Deputy Sheriffs across the Commonwealth. Each Sheriff's office may elect to participate and send the staff they would like to develop as a trainer. Deputies must have the approval of their Sheriff to be eligible for participation.

The Train the Trainer Program is comprised of an Instructor Development Course and content-specific courses. As a prerequisite to registering and attending any content-specific course, each candidate must complete or have previously completed any of the DSETB sponsored Instructor Development Courses.

The Instructor Development in Grantville, PA (M-14-01) will be held at the Holiday Inn Grantville, 604 Station Road, Grantville, PA 17028, (717) 469-0661. The second course in Monroeville, PA (M-14-02) will be held at the Holiday Inn Monroeville, 2750 Mosside Blvd., Monroeville, PA, 15146, (412) 372-1022. Class size is limited to twenty (20) deputies. Arranging travel, lodging and meals are the responsibility of the attendees. The DSETB will provide reimbursement for salary, lodging, mileage and meals. Upon course completion, a Training Expense Voucher will be mailed to the sheriff.

The Firearms Instructor Courses are being hosted by the Deputy Sheriff's Training Academy, State College, PA. On the first day of class, attendees are required to pass a qualification course of fire to remain in the course. Class size is limited to twenty (20) deputies. Ammunition will be provided. You will be contacted to provide us with your make, model and caliber of duty weapon you will be using. Lodging and meals will be provided by the academy. The DSETB will provide reimbursement for salary and mileage through issuing Training Expense Vouchers. Any Deputy Sheriff that previously completed the Firearms Instructor Course is not required to repeat the course. A separate Re-Certification Course is required to maintain certification.

The Firearms Instructor Re-Certification Course is a two day class that deputies are required to complete once every two years. Any deputy that was certified as a Firearms Instructor by the DSETB during 2012 is required to successfully complete one of the Re-Certification Courses during 2014. Deputies that were certified or re-certified during 2013 are permitted to attend, but are not required to re-certify until 2015. Priority will be given to those deputies that were certified or re-certified in 2012. The Re-Certification Courses are being hosted by the Deputy Sheriff's Training Academy, State College, PA. Attendees are required to pass a qualification course of fire to remain in the course. Class size is limited to twenty (20) deputies. Ammunition will be provided. You will be contacted to provide us with your make, model and caliber of duty weapon you will be using. Lodging and meals will be provided by the academy. The DSETB will provide reimbursement for salary and mileage through issuing Training Expense Vouchers.

The Patrol Rifle Instructor Course is a three and a half day course being hosted by the Deputy Sheriff's Training Academy, State College, PA. As a prerequisite to attending the Patrol Rifle Instructor Course, the deputies must have successfully completed the Firearms Instructor Course. Attendees must pass a qualification course of fire to remain in the course. Class size is limited to twenty (20) deputies. Patrol rifles will not be supplied. Ammunition will be provided. You will be contacted to provide us with your make, model and caliber of patrol rifle you will be using. Lodging and meals will be provided by the academy. The DSETB will provide reimbursement for salary and mileage through issuing Training Expense Vouchers.

The Patrol Rifle Instructor Re-Certification Course is a two day class that deputies are required to complete once every two years. Attendees must maintain current DSETB certification as a Firearms Instructor to be eligible to attend the Patrol Rifle Instructor Re-Certification Course. Any deputy that was certified as a Patrol Rifle Instructor by the DSETB during 2012 is required to successfully complete one of the Re-Certification Courses during 2014. Deputies that were certified or re-certified during 2013 are permitted to attend, but are not required to re-certify until 2015. Priority will be given to those deputies that were certified in 2012. The Re-Certification courses are being hosted by the Deputy Sheriff's Training Academy, State College, PA. Attendees are required to pass a qualification course of fire to remain in the course. Class size is limited to twenty (20) deputies. Patrol rifles will not be supplied. Ammunition will be provided. You will be contacted to provide us with your make, model and caliber of patrol rifle you will be using. Lodging and meals will be provided by the academy.
