2015-2017 SHERIFF AND DEPUTY SHERIFF ACTIVE SHOOTER TRAINING

The Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff Education and Training Board (SDSETB) is pleased to announce the Active Shooter Course schedule for the 2015-2017 training cycle. The SDSETB will sponsor eight (8) classes hosted by Temple University. The classes will be offered regionally throughout the Commonwealth.

This basic level course of instruction is designed to prepare the first responder to search, locate, and engage the active shooter. The course curriculum includes moving in hallways, threshold evaluation, concepts and principles of team movement, room entry techniques, pre-crisis site assessment and preparation, and educating your civilian population on active shooters and a civilian response.

Below is the 2015-2017 Active Shooter Training Schedule. All course registrations are to be completed using the Sheriff and Deputy Sheriffs' Information System (SDSIS). Registration is limited to eighteen (18) sheriffs and/or deputy sheriffs. Registration is on a "first served" basis. Registrants will NOT receive additional class information via mail. Please refer to the class detail page of the SDSIS for additional information related to the class. The only equipment needed for this class is a nylon or BDU trouser belt. Body armor is permitted, but not required for this training. All other equipment for training will be provided. Weapons of any type are prohibited at these classes. Class start time is 8:00 a.m.
